(3) The appointing authority shall have the power to extend the period of probation of any employee of the Institute for such periods as may be found necessary, provided that if, after the period of probation, the official is not confirmed, and, his probation is also not formally extended, he shall be deemed to have continued on a temporary basis and that his services may then be terminable on a month's notice or on payment of a month's salary in lieu thereof.

*(a) Every graduate engineer appointed at the Institute on or after 1st July, 1969 shall, if so required, be liable to serve in India or abroad in any defence services or post connected with the defence of India for a period of not less than four years including the period spent on training, if any.

Provided that such person—

- (i) shall not be required to serve as aforesaid after the expiry of ten years from the date of such appointment, and
- (ii) shall not ordinarily be required to serve as aforesaid after attaining the age of forty years.

(4) An employee of the Institute shall devote his whole time to the service of the Institute and shall not engage, directly or indirectly, in any trade or business or any other work which may interfere with the proper discharge of his duties, but the prohibition herein contained shall not apply to academic work and consultative practice undertaken with the prior permission of the Director, which may be given subject to such conditions as regards the acceptance of remuneration as may be laid down by the Board.

(5) The appointing authority shall have the power to terminate the services of any member of the staff without notice and without any cause assigned during the period of probation.

(6) The appointing authority shall have the power to terminate the services of any member of the staff by three months' notice or on payment of three months' salary in lieu thereof, if, on medical grounds, certified by the medical authority nominated by the Board, his retention in service is considered undesirable by such appointing authority.

(7) The Board shall have the power to terminate the services of any member of the staff on grounds of retrenchment or economy by giving to the persons concerned six months' notice in writing or on payment of six months' salary in lieu thereof.

†(8) An employee of the Institute may terminate his engagement by giving the appointing authority 3 months' notice, provided that the appointing authority may for sufficient reasons, either reduce this period or call upon the employee concerned to continue till the end of the academic session in which the notice is received.

(9) The Director may place a member of the staff appointed at the Institute under suspension —

*Inserted vide Ministry of Education letter No. T.24-30/64-T. 6, dated 13th May, 1969.

†Amended vide Ministry of Education letter No. 11-7/76-T.6, dated 26th October, 1977. Effective from October 22, 1977.

- (a) where a disciplinary proceeding against him is contemplated or is pending, or
- (b) where a case against him in respect of any criminal offence is under investigation or trial.

*Provided that where a member of the staff is detained in custody for a period exceeding forty eight hours, whether in connection with a criminal offence or under any law for time being in force providing for preventive detention, such member of the staff shall be deemed to have been placed by the Director under suspension with effect from the date on which he was so detained.

During the period of suspension, the member of the staff shall be entitled to the following payments, namely :

- (a) A subsistence allowance at an amount equal to the leave salary which the staff member would have drawn if he had been on leave on half average pay or on half pay and in addition, dearness allowance, if admissible on the basis of such leave salary.

Provided that where the period of suspension exceeds six months, the Director shall be empowered to vary the amount of subsistence allowance for any period subsequent to the period of the first six months as follows :

- (i) The amount of subsistence allowance may be increased by a suitable amount not exceeding 50% of the subsistence allowance admissible during the period of the first six months, if, in the opinion of the Director, the period of suspension has been prolonged for reasons to be recorded in writing not directly attributable to the staff member;
 - (ii) The amount of subsistence allowance may be reduced by a suitable amount, not exceeding 50% of the subsistence allowance admissible during the period of first six months, if, in the opinion of the Director, the period of suspension has been prolonged due to reasons to be recorded in writing, directly attributable to the staff member;
 - (iii) The rate of dearness allowance will be based on the increase, or as the case may be the decreased amount of subsistence allowance admissible under sub-clauses (i) and (ii) above.
- (b) any other compensatory allowance admissible from time to time on the basis of pay of which the staff member was in receipt on the date of suspension subject to the fulfilment of other conditions laid down for the drawal of such allowances.

*Substituted vide Ministry of Education letter No. 11-776-T. 6, dated 26th October, 1977. Effective from October 22, 1977.

However, no payment shall be made unless the staff member furnishes a certificate that he is not engaged in any other employment, business, profession or vocation.

The following penalties may, for good and sufficient reasons, and as hereinafter provided, be imposed on any member of the staff :

- (i) Censure;
- (ii) withholding of increments or promotion;
- (iii) recovery from the whole or part of any pecuniary loss caused to the Institute by negligence or breach of orders;
- (iv) reduction to lower service, grade or post or to a lower time-scale or to a lower stage in a time-scale;
- (v) compulsory retirement;
- (vi) removal from service which shall not be a disqualification for future employment under the Institute.
- (vii) dismissal from service which shall ordinarily be a disqualification for future employment in the Institute.

No order imposing on any member of the staff any of the penalties specified at (iv) to (vii) above shall be passed by any authority subordinate to that by which he was appointed and except after an enquiry has been held and the member of the staff has been given reasonable opportunity of showing cause of the action proposed to be taken in regard to him.

No order imposing on any member of the staff any of the penalties specified at (i) to (iii) above shall be passed by any authority subordinate to that by which he was appointed and unless the member of the staff concerned has been given an opportunity to make a representation to the Appointing Authority.

Notwithstanding the above provisions, it shall not be necessary to follow the procedure mentioned above in the following cases :

- (a) where an employee is dismissed or removed or reduced in rank on the ground of conduct which has led to his conviction on a criminal charge;
- (b) where the authority empowered to dismiss or remove the person or to reduce him in rank is satisfied that, for some reason to be recorded by that authority in writing, it is not reasonably practicable to give that person an opportunity of showing cause; or
- (c) where the Visitor is satisfied that, in the interest of the security of the State, it is not expedient to give that person such an opportunity.

If any question arises whether it is reasonably practicable to give any person an opportunity of showing cause under clause (b) above, the decision thereon of the authority empowered to dismiss or remove such person or to reduce him in rank, as the case may be, shall be final.

- (10) A member of the staff aggrieved by any order imposing penalty passed by the Director against him shall be entitled to prefer an appeal to the Board against the order and there shall be no further appeal from the decision of the Board and a member of the staff aggrieved by any order passed by the Board against him inflicting a penalty on him shall be entitled to prefer an appeal to the Visitor against the order.

No appeal under this sub-statute shall be entertained, unless it is submitted within a period of three months from the date on which the appellant receives a copy of the order appealed against, provided that the Appellate Authority may entertain the appeal after the expiry of the said period, if it is satisfied that the appellant has sufficient cause for not submitting the appeal in time.

(11) The authority to whom an appeal against an order imposing penalty lies under sub-statute (10) may, of its own motion or otherwise, call for the records of the case in a disciplinary proceeding, review any order passed in such a case and pass such orders as it deems fit as if the member of the staff concerned had preferred an appeal against such order.

Provided that no action under this sub-statute shall be initiated more than six months after the date of the order to be reviewed.

(12) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Statute, the Visitor may, on his own motion or otherwise, after calling for the records of the case, review any order which is made under this Statute or is appealable thereunder, and

- (a) confirm, modify or set aside the order;
- (b) impose any penalty or set aside, reduce, confirm or enhance the penalty imposed by the order;
- (c) remit the case to the authority which made the order or to any other Authority directing such further action or enquiry as he considers proper in the circumstances of the case; or
- (d) pass such other orders as he deems fit.

Provided that—

- (i) an order imposing or enhancing a penalty shall not be passed unless the person concerned has been given an opportunity of making any representation which he may wish to make against such enhanced penalty;
- (ii) if the Visitor proposes to impose any of the penalties specified in clause (iv) to (vii) of sub-statute (9) in a case where proper enquiry has not been held and thereafter, on consideration of the proceedings of such enquiry and after giving the member of the staff concerned an opportunity of making any representation which he may wish to make against such penalty, pass such orders as he deems fit.

(13) The decision of the Appellate Authority under sub-statute (10) or (11) shall, subject to the provisions of sub-statute (12), be final.

- (14) (i) When a member of the staff of the Institute who has been dismissed, removed or suspended is reinstated, the authority competent to order the reinstatement shall consider and make a specific order :
- (a) regarding the pay and allowances to be paid to the member of the staff of the Institute for the period of his absence from duty; and
 - (b) whether or not the said period shall be treated as a period spent on duty.
- (ii) Where such competent authority holds that the member of the staff of the Institute has been fully exonerated, or in the case of suspension, that it was wholly unjustified, the member of the staff of the Institute shall be given the full pay to which he would have been entitled had he not been dismissed, removed or suspended, as the case may be, together with any allowance of which he was in receipt prior to his dismissal, removal or suspension.
- (iii) In other cases, the member of the staff of the Institute shall be given such proportion of such pay and allowances as such competent authority may prescribe.

Provided that the payment of allowance under clause (ii) or clause (iii) shall be subject to all other conditions under which such allowances are admissible.

- (iv) In cases falling under clause (ii) the period of absence from duty shall be treated as a period spent on duty for all purposes.
- (v) In cases falling under clause (iii) the period of absence from duty shall not be treated as a period spent on duty, unless such competent authority specifically directs that it shall be so treated for any specified purpose.

(15) The employees of the Institute shall be entitled to travelling and daily allowances according to the scales laid down by the Board from time to time.

(16) The employees of the Institute shall be entitled to reimbursement of medical expenses incurred on themselves and their families as set out in Schedule 'AA'.

(17) The employees of the Institute shall be governed by the Conduct Rules as laid down in Schedule 'B'.

(18) It shall be for the Council to decide as to the class of employees of the Institute who shall be entitled to vacation.

14. Terms and Conditions of Service of Temporary Employees

- (i) The service of a temporary employee shall be liable to termination at any time by notice in writing given either by the employee to the appointing authority, or by the appointing authority to the employee. The period of such notice shall be one month, unless otherwise agreed to by the Institute and the employee.
- (ii) The other terms and conditions of service of such employee shall be such as may be specified by the appointing authority in his letter of appointment.

15. Appointment on Contracts

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in these Statutes, the Board may, in special circumstances, appoint an eminent person on contract for a period not exceeding five years, with a provision of renewal for further period, provided that every such appointment and the terms thereof shall be subject to the prior approval of the Visitor.

(2) Subject to the provisions contained in the Act, the Board may appoint any person on contract in the prescribed scales of pay and on the terms and conditions applicable to the relevant post for a period not exceeding five years with a provision of renewal for further period. For making such appointments, the Chairman may, at his discretion, constitute such ad hoc selection committees, as the circumstances of each case may require.

* (3) Notwithstanding anything contained in these Statutes, the Council may appoint an eminent person as Director on contract for a period not exceeding five years, with a provision for renewal for further periods provided that every such appointment and terms thereof shall be subject to the prior approval of the Visitor.

16. Contributory Provident Fund

(1) A Compulsory Contributory Provident Fund shall be constituted, maintained and administered for the employees of the Institute in accordance with the provisions set out in Schedule 'C'. All accumulations of the subscribers in the Contributory Provident Fund, maintained for the benefit of the employees of the Institute immediately before the commencement of these Statutes, shall stand transferred to the Compulsory Provident Fund constituted under the Statute and shall be credited to the accounts of the employees entitled thereto in the Fund so constituted. A subscriber shall contribute to the Fund so constituted an amount not less than 8 $\frac{1}{3}$ % of his emoluments but the contribution of the Institute to the said Fund shall be limited to 8 $\frac{1}{3}$ % of the emoluments of the subscriber.

†(2) Subject to the provision contained in Schedule 'C', all permanent employees of the Institute who are appointed or re-appointed before 1st January, 1971 and who have not otherwise exercised an option to join the CPF-cum-Gratuity Scheme referred to in Statute 16A or the GPF-cum-Pension-cum-Gratuity scheme referred to in Statute 16B, shall join the Contributory Provident Fund.

(3) No employee of the Institute shall be entitled to the benefits of the Contributory Provident Fund whose services in the Institute entitle him to a pension and gratuity, to a maximum of sixteen and a half times the emoluments or rupees thirty thousand whichever is less.

* (6) Any such employee leaving the Institute or Central University to join any of the other Institutes or any Central University shall join the corresponding scheme of the new Institute or, as the case may be, the University and his accumulations in the Fund shall be transferred to the corresponding fund of new Institute or University.

(7) The liability of total gratuity ultimately payable to any such employee shall be distributed between the Institute in proportion to the length of qualifying service at each Institute.

(8) Save as otherwise provided in this Statute, in all other respects the provisions as contained in the Schedule 'E' to these Statutes shall be applicable for the purposes of this Scheme.

16B. General Provident Fund-cum-Pension-cum-Gratuity Scheme

(1) Every employee of the Institute—

- (i) who is referred to in clause (2) of Statute 16, or
- (ii) who holds an appointment on a temporary basis but is subscribing or is required to subscribe to the Contributory Provident Fund in terms of sub-paragraph (2A) of Schedule 'C', or
- (iii) who may be appointed either for the first time or re-appointed on or after the 1st January, 1971, or
- (iv) who was earlier employed in the Delhi Polytechnic prior to his transfer to the Indian Institute of Technology, Delhi and who had opted to be governed by the rules in that behalf applicable to the Central Government employees;

may exercise an option to join the General Provident Fund-cum-Pension-cum-Gratuity Scheme, sponsored by the Institute for the benefit of its employees.

Provided that no such option shall be exercised by an employee who has been appointed by the Institute on a consolidated salary or on special terms which exclude the benefits of the Contributory Provident Fund Scheme or who has exercised an option for the Contributory Provident Fund-cum-Gratuity Scheme referred to in Statute 16A.

Provided further that if an employee referred to in sub-clause (iv) (for Kharagpur/Delhi only) fails to exercise an option within the specified period in favour of the General Provident Fund-cum-Pension-cum-Gratuity Scheme referred to in this Statute shall be deemed to have exercised his option for the Scheme.

* Substituted vide Ministry of Education letter No. F.10-20/76-T. 6, dated 20th February, 1979. Effective from February 15, 1979.

* (2) Any such option shall be exercised in Form 1 prescribed for the purpose in Appendix I to Schedule F—

- † (i) in case of an employee referred to in sub-clause (i) (other than a permanent employee appointed or re-appointed prior to 1st April, 1962) or sub-clause (ii), within a period of three months from the 1st January, 1971;
- ‡ (ia) in case of an employee appointed or re-appointed before the 1st April, 1962, within a period of three months from the 1st December, 1971; and
- (ii) in the case of an employee referred to in sub-clause (iii), within a period of three months from the date of completion of one year's temporary service or confirmation whichever is earlier.

(3) On receipt of such option from any of the employees referred to in sub-clause (i) or (ii) the amount of the contribution of the Institute with interest thereon standing to the credit of the employee in the Contributory Provident Fund shall revert to the Institute and be credited to its Fund and the amount of the employees' own contribution to the Contributory Provident Fund after adjustment of advances, if any, taken from the said fund, shall, together with interest thereon, be maintained as his contribution to General Provident Fund to be opened by the Institute for the purpose.

 (3A) (a) Every employee of the Institute :

- (i) who is governed by Statute 16 or who has exercised an option under sub-statutes (1) and (2) of Statute 16A, or
- (ii) who may be appointed either for the first time or re-appointed on or after the 1.7.1977 may exercise an option to join the General Provident Fund-cum-Pension-cum-Gratuity Scheme, sponsored by the Institute for the benefit of the employees;

Provided that no such option shall be exercised by an employee who has been appointed by the Institute on a consolidated salary or on special terms which exclude the benefits or the retirement benefit schemes.

- (b) Any such option shall be exercised in Form 1 prescribed for the purpose in Appendix I to Schedule F within a period of three months from the date of issue of this notification and any such option once exercised shall be final.
